About the Cover: Paul likens our earthly dwelling to a tent that one day will be further clothed by the life of Jesus. God has created us body and soul. Yet we feel the burden of a fallen and sinful world in bodies that do not always function the way God intends. These bodies, which suffer the effects of sin in this world, will be resurrected and transformed to be glorious bodies because Jesus died and rose again.

The Board of Deacon’s would like to apologize for running out of food and not being able to serve all who came. (We had leftovers last year?!) Thank you and God bless.

From the Stewardship Committee: Mark 4:34 – “He did not speak to them without a parable, but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.” How blessed we are to be His disciples! The Lord has indeed explained everything to us. He has told us all things plainly. Why then are we ever so foolish as to disobey His clear Word? Our fight against sin in the power of the Holy Spirit is truly a struggle. Therefore, let us receive the Lord’s help in His Word and Sacraments — and let us fight the good fight of faith and grow up into His image.

Our Savior has more than enough blessings for everyone and promises that He will turn no one away. Please let us know who you are and how we can serve you by completing a registration card found in the seat backs and placing it in the offering plate at the entrances to the sanctuary.

At Our Savior Lutheran Church we live to make Christ known.

Monthly Memory Verse:

For the Lord gives wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
Proverbs 2:6

Weekly Discussion Question:

How does the world respond to the Lord's wisdom?

Holy Communion: In joyful obedience to the teaching of Scripture, it is our practice to determine doctrinal unity for those partaking of the Sacrament. Our practice in no way denies that there are Christians in other denominations. Oneness in doctrine is witnessed to in this celebration. Those who understand the meaning of communion and wish to receive it today are asked to review the statement on the back of the registration card.
